FREEDOM IS IN PERIL!

Freedom of thought, expression, dissemination of news and information—the loss of these freedoms can make a mockery of that larger freedom we hold so dear!

ITEM: India's 1963-64 imports bill was Rs. 1,149 crores: Of this only Rs. 6.36 crores was for newsprint: In 1956 the newsprint import bill was Rs. 6.66 crores: No increase in 8 years.

ITEM: Average rates for newsprint entitlement are pegged at 1957 level: Buffer stocks are frozen at 1959 consumption: Circulations are restricted to 1961 level. Could there be a stricter control!

ITEM: Even newsprint tonnage consumed according to Government notifications amounting to $2\frac{1}{2}$ —3 months' entitlement has not been replaced.

The number of daily newspapers in India in 1956 was 424. In 1964 it rose to 616—an increase of 186 in daily newspapers alone. Hundreds of weeklies and periodicals have also made their appearance since 1956: But the foreign exchange allocation for newsprint has remained stationary.
